About the Conference

Now in its fourth year, our conference serves to strengthen support services across the Autistic Spectrum by fostering an environment of open dialogue while providing Green Tree Partnerships' signature professional development offerings.

Partners in this event include La Salle University & Green Tree School a special needs school serving Autistic students in Philadelphia.

Why Get Involved?

- Connect your business to families, students, and educators from across the Autism spectrum
- Reinforce your company's stance as a responsible and caring corporate citizen
- Give your company positive exposure through our marketing and public relations initiatives

Conference Goals

- Raise awareness of issues related to Autism Spectrum Disorder.
- To provide a family-friendly forum for people living on the Autism Spectrum and their families, where they can share their experiences and obtain needed information.
- Build a collaborative community of clients and service providers by allowing everyone's voice to be heard throughout the spectrum.
- Engage a diverse audience of stakeholders in the dialogue around Autism by providing access to caregivers and families, while nurturing the professional development of human service and educational workers.

Exhibitor Benefits

- Exposure to hundreds of Autism advocates and professionals
- Exposure to hundreds of parents, guardians, and families actively seeking products and services for their Autistic child or relative
- Ample marketing and promotions opportunities
- Resource book circulation to more than 300 attendees and many others others throughout the year
- Great networking and relationship building opportunities
